

Secure Your Home Before You Go

Homes are more vulnerable to criminal activity when on vacation. Here are some basic steps you can take to avoid becoming a victim:

- Put inside lights on timers; have them on different times so the same ones turn on and off at the same time.
- Cancel mail and newspaper deliveries if travelling or have a neighbor collect them.
- Let your neighbor know that you will be away.
- Make sure all doors and windows are locked.