

Dear Prudential Associate, Welcome to Newark!

Prudential has called Newark, New Jersey home for over 140 years. Newark is one of the oldest cities in the United States, one of the nation’s major air, shipping and rail hubs and a vibrant city on the rise. As with any major metropolitan and tourist destination, visitors are reminded to maintain awareness of their environment and encouraged to adhere to a few simple security practices.

Quick Security Reference for Newark Visitors

- Check with your hotel for shuttle service to/from Prudential Campus offices and other locations.
- Prudential Shuttles for the Newark Campus locations are available to Prudential employees with ID Badges (Call Pru Van Central at +1 973-802-8267 to request pickup).
- If leaving the office after dark, consider utilizing the shuttles or requesting a security escort (contact the buildings local security desk for escort).
- Avoid walking to/from restaurants and other locations and arrange transportation with your hotel.

More Detail...

Safety & Security

- Certain hotels provide shuttle service to Prudential offices (check with the hotel), Newark Penn Station and Newark Airport.
- Prudential Shuttles are available to Prudential employees for the Newark Campus locations. Utilizing the shuttles is strongly recommended. Visitors who wish to use Prudential shuttle should call Pru Van Central at +1 973-802-8267. Pru Van Central will provide shuttle routes and estimated time of pick-ups/drop-offs. The shuttle is available to employees to and from the Prudential offices, including stops at the Gateway Center buildings, Newark Penn Station* and Newark Broad Street Station*. IMPORTANT! You will not be permitted to board any Prudential shuttle van unless you show the driver your Prudential photo ID badge. (*Limited hours).
- If leaving the office after dark, consider utilizing the shuttles or requesting a security escort. Prudential’s security escorts are available for Prudential associates who walk from the office to Prudential parking facilities, bus stops, hotels, train stations and other areas around the Newark Campus. To request a security escort, contact the buildings local security desk.
- If you see something unusual, you should alert your hotel security, local law enforcement officers or Prudential’s Global Security Command Center team at +1 973-802-6675.
- Always maintain awareness of your surroundings and remember to pay attention to your personal belongings such as purses, cell phones, laptops, and other valuables.
- Limit displays of jewelry, cash, credit cards or valuables in public areas. Take only what you need and secure the remainder in the hotel safe.

- Know where exits are while in any building, hotel, theater, and shopping centers, etc.
- Only use ATMs at your hotel or at Prudential offices.
- Always ensure your hotel room is locked upon leaving.
- Prudential Parking is easy, reservations can be made by visiting <http://epass.prudential.com> .
- If you require assistance at any time during your stay, please contact Prudential's Global Security team at +1 973-802-6675.

Public Transportation

- We recommend anyone who uses public transportation do so during reasonable hours and plan their commute back to the hotel accordingly using safe methods (check with your hotel).
- If public transportation does not accommodate for your travel plans, please be sure to use vetted car services like a taxi or car service ordered from your hotel, to navigate to your destination to or from the Newark area.
- Newark Penn Station is located in the Gateway District just a few blocks from the heart of downtown Newark. It is served by Amtrak and New Jersey Transit Northeast Corridor, North Jersey Coast Line, and Raritan Valley Line, with easy connections to New York, Philadelphia, Trenton, and points south and west.
 - The PATH train connects Penn Station with Jersey City and the World Trade Center. Connections to other PATH lines can be made to Hoboken, the West Village, Chelsea, and 33rd St. in Manhattan. PATH services give visitors easy access to the World Trade Center and other locations in the heart of lower Manhattan. The PATH offers easy connections from the PATH Subway system located at Newark Penn Station to the MTA (NYC Subway lines).
- Broad Street Station, located at the north end of downtown is served by three New Jersey Transit lines: the Montclair-Boonton, Morristown and Gladstone Branch lines. These serve the suburbs, Hoboken Terminal, and (on Midtown Direct trains) New York Penn Station. Midtown direct service also stops at Secaucus Junction where you can transfer to the Meadowlands Rail Line. Broad Street Station is connected to Newark's Penn Station by Newark Light Rail.

Dining Out

- We strongly recommend arranging transportation to/from restaurants (check with your hotel).
- You can find several dining options around the Prudential campus. Prudential Center, Halsey Street and Broad Street. (www.newarkhappening.com/restaurants/)
- In Newark's "Ironbound" neighborhood, there are several Portuguese, Spanish and Latin American restaurants such as Adegas Grill, Boi na Brasa, Mi Pequeño Mexico, Casa d'Paco, and Fornos. (goironbound.com/dining)
- Your hotel should also have food options and food delivery information if you decide to stay in.

Tourist Attractions (Check venue websites for their health & safety guidelines)

- We strongly recommend arranging transportation to/from tourist venues (check with your hotel).

- Prudential Center - The Prudential Center is the home of the New Jersey Devils (NHL hockey team). During the season, feel free to catch a game or visit the Prudential Center's website to see what other events / concerts may be occurring during your stay in Newark.
- NJPAC - The New Jersey Performing Arts Center (NJPAC) hosts a wide variety of scheduled events and entertainment, located across from Military Park. Visit the NJPAC website to see what events may be occurring during your stay in Newark.
- Newark Museum - The Newark Museum, located on Washington Street and Central Avenue, is the state's largest museum. There are several ongoing adult programs, lectures, tours and jazz performances available throughout the year, along with an impressive collection of American Art, Arts of Global Africa, and Arts of Asia exhibits.
- New York City - New York City is just minutes away from Newark when using Public Transportation. Find yourself in the heart of Manhattan with easy access to a wide variety of attractions, including shopping, restaurants, entertainment and much more.
